MEDIA INFORMATION

GEORGIA BASEBALL ON THE INTERNET/RADIO/TV

Fans wishing to follow all the action of the 2025 University of Georgia baseball season can tune in to various multi-media options.

The Georgia Bulldog Sports Network will broadcast every game. The veteran Bulldog broadcast team of Jeff Dantzler and David Johnston return for their 26th season on the network with all games produced through JMI/Learfield in Winston Salem, N.C. Locally, all games can be heard on WRFC 960 AM with a number of statewide affiliates carrying a full or partial season schedule.

The Georgia Bulldogs App will provide free full gameday coverage including an audio stream and live stats as well as feature rosters, statistics and the 2025 schedule. The Georgia Bulldogs app is free and available to download for both IOS and Android users.

All home games will have a video stream via the SECN+ and ESPN+ platforms. Matt Stewart and Jason Jacobs return again this season to call the action for games not televised on linear TV. The SECN+ platform is available to all subscribers of the SEC Network through your cable, satellite or stream provider. ESPN+ is available as a stand-alone stream service.

Bulldogs Take Aim At Omaha In 2025

Preseason All-America Tre Phelps headlines the 2025 offense.

After falling one game short of advancing to the 2024 College World Series (CWS), the Bulldogs have reloaded the roster again in year two of the Wes Johnson era. Last year under Johnson, the Bulldogs enjoyed their finest season since 2008. Now, the preseason prognosticators see the Bulldogs taking another step forward and getting back to Omaha for the CWS.

The impact of Johnson and his coaching staff showed at the plate and on the mound in 2024.

Georgia Hitting & Pitching: What A Difference A Year Makes

Year	Batting	SLG%	HR	OB%	HPB	BB
2023	.283	.505	101	.380	56	253
2024	.303	.589	151	.433	128	361

Year	W-L	ERA	IP	K	BB	OPP. AVG.
2023	29-27	6.44	483.1	507	276	.271
2024	43-17	5.71	515.1	606	271	.265

The NCAA Transfer Portal allows teams to overhaul rosters annually, and Georgia proved in 2024, it knows how to bring in the right blend of newcomers to form a talented team. The 2025 additions from the portal, high school and junior college ranks were rated among the best in the country by leading baseball publications. On Feb. 14, the college baseball season begins, and the results will speak for themselves.

After plenty of spirited competition in the fall that continued in the weeks leading up to Opening Day, the lineup will feature some constants plus more battles on tap in the early part of the campaign. As was the case in 2024, Johnson's lineup and pitching plans will vary based on specific matchups.

Georgia welcomes back several members of its starting rotation including Leighton Finley

"I'm excited about where our pitching staff is now," said Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson. "There was a lot of competition that drove them in the fall and in the preseason. Offensively, we don't have a Charlie Condon or a Corey Collins back, but when you look at our depth of a lineup and on the bench to match up against a tough lefty or righty, we're ahead of where we were last year. We've got guys who can play a lot of different positions, and it's good to see guys show they're capable of moving around, versatility is a plus."

Potential Starting Nine (2024 Avg.-HR-RBI)

C/OF: Henry Hunter, Sr., (.264-4-12)
INF/OF: Tre Phelps, So., (.353-12-40)
INF/OF: Ryland Zaborowski, Gr., (.305-10-45 at Miami, Ohio)
INF/OF: Christian Adams, Gr., (.343-8-31 at FAU)
INF: Slate Alford, Sr., (.300-17-69)
INF: Kolby Branch, Jr., (.267-17-58)

OF: Nolan McCarthy, Gr., (.288-8-41 at Kentucky)
OF/INF: Robbie Burnett, Sr., (.323-18-45 at UNC Asheville)

Potential Starting Nine Pitchers & Relievers: (2024 W-L, ERA)

RHP: Kolten Smith, Jr., (9-3, 5.56 ERA)
RHP: Leighton Finley, Jr., (6-1, 4.14 ERA)
RHP: JT Quinn, Jr., (1-3, 8.84 ERA at Ole Miss)
RHP: Zach Harris, Jr., (5-2, 6.87 ERA)
LHP: Charlie Goldstein, Gr., (4-1, 3.72 ERA)
LHP: Alton Davis, Jr., (4-2, 5.61 ERA, 4 SV at Alabama)
RHP: Brian Curley, Jr., (6-0, 2.87 ERA, 3 SV at VCU)
RHP: Zach Brown, So., (4-0, 4.22 ERA at Ohio State)
RHP: Brian Zeldin, Gr., (3-3, 5.66 ERA, 6 SV)

The Preseason Rankings

Georgia checked in at No. 4 in the Perfect Game preseason top 25 poll, No. 8 according to D1Baseball and No. 11 in Baseball America's preseason rankings.

"The one thing I've said for years is if you don't think you're going to be good at the end of the fall, you're probably not going to be good at all," said Johnson. "It's good to hear that people are talking about you. I've already addressed our team about expectations. The best teams keep their head down and understand this game. The old clichés come out. One pitch at a time. One at bat at a time. One out at a time. If we can do that and continue to pile those on top of each other, then this team can be okay."

Wes JOHNSON

Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach
2nd Season at UGA
(Arkansas Monticello '94)

#49

Wes Johnson enters his second season as the Ike Cousins head baseball coach at the University of Georgia. He made an immediate impact in year one.

At the baseball press conference announcing his hire in June of 2023, UGA's J. Reid Parker Director of Athletic Josh Brooks noted Johnson had a proven track record of developing student-athletes and that his teams at every level had achieved impressive results. Brooks added he was confident Johnson would make Georgia Baseball one of the premier programs in the country.

Johnson directed the Bulldogs to their most successful season since reaching the College World Series Finals in 2008. The 2024 Bulldogs earned a No. 7 National Seed for the NCAA Championships, captured the NCAA Athens Regional, hosted an NCAA Super Regional and came within one game of reaching the College World Series (CWS).

Georgia posted a 43-17 record (17-13 SEC) as Johnson established school records for most overall wins and most SEC wins by a first-year baseball coach, and Georgia finished with a top 10 national ranking for the first time in a full season since 2008. He became the first Georgia baseball coach to host and win an NCAA Regional in his first season along with serving as a Super Regional host. In a preseason poll, SEC coaches projected Georgia would finish sixth in the Eastern Division and instead the Bulldogs placed third and had the fifth best mark in the 14-team league.

In 2024, Georgia featured one of the nation's elite players in All-American Charlie Condon. He earned the Dick Howser Trophy, which is widely considered the Heisman Trophy of college baseball, and USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award as the nation's top amateur player. Also, Condon took home the Bobby Bragan National Collegiate Slugger Award. At the end of the season, sophomore Kolten Smith and freshman All-American Tre Phelps received invitations to the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team Training Camp. Corey Collins joined Condon as an All-American and became the first SEC player to lead the NCAA in on base percentage, posting a .574 mark.

On June 26, 2024, it was announced UGA and Johnson had agreed to a contract extension through 2030.

A native of Sherwood, Ark., Johnson became the first pitching coach in Major League Baseball (MLB) history to make the move directly from the college ranks to the big leagues when he was hired by the Minnesota Twins in November of 2018. He served as a collegiate pitching coach since 2008 with stints in the Southeastern Conference at Mississippi State and Arkansas before joining the Twins. Minnesota was the leading the American League Central Division in June of 2022 when he opted to return to the college game at LSU.

Johnson remained with the Tigers until their 2023 season was complete, culminating in the program's seventh national title. They were the No. 5 NCAA Tournament National Seed and advanced to the College World Series (CWS) in Omaha, Neb. The Tigers made their first CWS appearance since 2017 and won their first national title since 2009. LSU finished with a 54-17 record. LSU had a school record 13 players (eight pitchers) selected in the MLB Draft including the first (Paul Skenes, RHP) and second overall (Dylan Crews, OF) picks.

The Twins won their division in Johnson's first two years directing the pitching staff, and in 2020, the club ranked fourth in the Majors in ERA, WHIP and ninth in strikeouts per nine innings. Ace right-hander Kenta Maeda posted a 2.70 Earned Run Average (ERA) and a 6-1 mark to earn a runner-up finish for the American League Cy Young Award.

During his time as a college coach, 38 of Johnson's pitchers have been drafted by MLB teams, and he has been at the forefront of utilizing Trackman technology. The 2023 LSU ace Paul Skenes (13-2, 1.69 ERA, SEC record 209 Ks in 122.2 IP), who was named the National Pitcher of the Year by multiple outlets, was the number one overall draft pick in 2023, signing with the Pittsburgh Pirates for a record $9.2 million bonus. As pitching coach at Arkansas, Johnson helped the 2018 Razorbacks reach the College World Series Finals as they finished 48-21. The top pitcher on that 2018 staff was Blaine Knight who went 14-0 with a 2.80 ERA and was a third-round pick of the Baltimore Orioles.

In his one season at Mississippi State, Johnson was instrumental in a dramatic turnaround by the Bulldogs going from worst to first. After winning only eight SEC games the previous year and having the highest ERA in the league, the 2016 club claimed the SEC regular-season title and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional. MSU won 44 games, its most since 1997. He produced six pitchers that were selected in the MLB Draft including Golden Spikes Award semifinalist Dakota Hudson who went 34th overall to the St. Louis Cardinals.

In four seasons at Dallas Baptist University (DBU), Johnson helped the Patriots to three NCAA Regional appearances, had 14 pitchers drafted and his pitching staffs set single season records for almost every major statistical category including ERA, strikeouts and saves. In 2015, DBU had five pitchers chosen in the first 12 rounds. Prior to Johnson's arrival (1967-2011), DBU had only six pitchers drafted in the first 10 rounds. The 2015 Patriots won a school-record 46 games, hosted their first NCAA Regional and earned the program's highest final ranking.

During his three seasons in the Southland Conference at the University of Central Arkansas (UCA), Johnson's pitching staffs set Division I school records in ERA, WHIP, strikeouts, opponent batting average and fewest walks. In 2009 while on staff at Southern Arkansas, the Muleriders went 52-11 and were ranked No.1 in the Division II poll for 12 weeks. One of his star pitchers was Hayden Simpson who became the first-round pick of the Chicago Cubs in the 2010 MLB Draft.

Before going to UCA, Johnson spent four seasons as the head coach of Abundant Life High School in his hometown of Sherwood. He guided the Owls to a 102-25 record including one state title and two state championship game appearances.

Johnson earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Arkansas Monticello in 1994. He completed a master's degree in kinesiology in 2017. Johnson and his wife Angie, have three children: Ryan, Anna and Ava; and one grandson, Mason.

COACHING STAFF

Will COGGIN

Asst. Head Coach
Hitting
2nd Season at UGA
(Miss. State '10)

#53

Will Coggin, a former player and coach in the Southeastern Conference, enters his second season as assistant head coach at the University of Georgia on the staff of Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson.

Coggin directed Georgia's record-setting offense in 2024 as the Bulldogs finished with a 43-17 mark and one win away from the College World Series. Georgia posted a top 10 final team ranking for the first time since 2008. The offense was headlined by a pair of All-Americans in Charlie Condon and Corey Collins. Condon, who was the No. 3 overall pick in the 2024 MLB Draft (Colorado Rockies), swept every major award, earning the Dick Howser Trophy, the Golden Spikes Award, the Bobby Bragan National Collegiate Slugger Award plus was named National Player of the Year by multiple outlets. He became just the third player in NCAA history to lead the nation in batting average (.443) and home runs (37--a BBOR-era record) in the same season. Collins, a sixth round pick of the New York Mets in 2024, became the first SEC player to lead the country in on base percentage at .574.

The 2024 Bulldogs finished second nationally with a school record 151 home runs including 12 grand slams and led the SEC in on base percentage (.433), hit by pitches (128), strikeout-to-walk ratio (1.24) and was second in batting (.303) and slugging (.589).

Coggin came to the Bulldogs after spending four years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Kentucky under Nick Mingione. In 2023, Coggin helped the Wildcats advance to an NCAA Super Regional for only the second time in school history, and UK reached the 40-win mark for just the seventh time in program history. In SEC action, the Wildcats led the conference in batting average, doubles, triples, stolen bases and fielding percentage and finished second in on base percentage, hit by pitches and turning double plays. The Wildcats led the nation with a school record .984 fielding mark.

Coggin, a former Mississippi State infielder and assistant coach, has proven adept in recruiting and as a hitting guru who has helped develop 17 players who have reached the Major Leagues. Additionally, he's been to the College World Series as a player, won multiple conference championships with St. Johns River State College and an SEC title while at his alma mater.

Coggin served as the hitting coach for the 2016 MSU club that won the SEC title, was a national seed in the NCAA Tournament and saw 11 players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including seven members making it to the Major Leagues. It was his second stint in Starkville, having played for the Bulldogs from 2007-08 and served on former UK and Mississippi State coach John Cohen's staff from 2009-12. He spent three seasons at St. Johns River State College in Palatka, Fla., before returning to State before the 2016 season.

In 2016, the Bulldogs improved their team batting average 42 points (.271 to .313), on-base percentage jumped from .372 to .407 and slugging percentage increased by 91 points. The club hit 30 more home runs, 60 more extra-base hits and scored 90 more runs on the way to 20 more wins.

Perhaps most impressive was Coggin's work with then-freshman outfielder Jake Mangum, who captured the batting title and became the first Mississippi State player to win SEC Freshman of the Year and first freshman to win the C Spire Ferriss Trophy, which is awarded to the best college baseball player in Mississippi. Mangum would go on to become the SEC's all-time hits leader and helped the program to a pair of trips to the CWS in 2018 and 2019.

He also played an important role in the development of 2017 SEC

Player of the Year and First-Team All-American Brent Rooker, who won the SEC's Triple Crown for batting average, home runs and RBI on his way to being named the Roy F. Kramer SEC Male Athlete of the Year. Rooker made his debut with Minnesota in 2020 and was named a 2023 MLB All-Star with Oakland.

Following the 2016 campaign, Coggin, a native of Booneville, Miss., was promoted to the recruiting coordinator role when Mingione accepted the Kentucky head coaching job. MSU went to two Super Regionals and won the SEC regular season title and the SEC Tournament title (in different seasons).

In between his two stints at Mississippi State, Coggin helped St. Johns River State College post 122 victories in three seasons, including a 57-14 mark in the Mid-Florida Conference. The 122 wins from 2013-15 were the most by a Florida junior college and the program spent time in the top five nationally in 2014 before being ranked No. 1 for much of the 2015 campaign. The Vikings won a school-record 47 games in 2015, won three straight league titles for the first time since 1966-68 and won their first Florida State Tournament game in 38 years.

While at SJRSC, Coggin's calling card was player development, where 25 players went on to sign with Division I-A programs and 45 with four-year schools. Current big-leaguer Nate Lowe (Texas Rangers) earned NJCAA First-Team All-American honors in 2015 after hitting .372 with 59 runs, 53 RBI and 17 home runs in 56 games before signing with Mississippi State. Lowe went on to win the MLB Silver Slugger award for the Texas Rangers in 2023. The 2015 SJR team also featured 2023 Gold Glove winning centerfielder Myles Straw of the Cleveland Guardians.

Before getting into coaching, Coggin was a middle infielder on Mississippi State's 2007 and 2008 teams after two seasons at Northeast Mississippi Community College. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2010 from Mississippi State before adding a master's degree in sports administration in 2012.

Brock BENNETT

Asst. Coach/Recruiting Coord.
6th Season at UGA
(Alabama '10)

#41

Atlanta native Brock Bennett begins his sixth season on the Georgia staff including his second as an assistant coach under Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson. Since the summer of 2024, he has served as the Recruiting Coordinator too.

Bennett assisted with Georgia's record-setting offense in 2024 as the Bulldogs finished with a 43-17 mark and one win away from the College World Series. Georgia posted a top 10 final team ranking for the first time since 2008. The offense was headlined by a pair of All-Americans in Charlie Condon and Corey Collins. Condon swept every major award, earning the Dick Howser Trophy, the Golden Spikes Award, the Bobby Bragan National Collegiate Slugger Award plus was named National Player of the Year by multiple outlets. Collins became the first SEC player to lead the country in on base percentage at .574.

The 2024 Bulldogs finished second nationally with a school record 151 home runs including 12 grand slams and led the SEC in on base percentage (.433), hit by pitches (128), strikeout-to-walk ratio (1.24) and was second in the league batting average (.303) and slugging percentage (.589).

From 2019-2023, Bennett was a volunteer assistant with the Bulldogs under Scott Stricklin. During this time, he worked with the catchers, infielders and served as the first base coach. Also, he was in charge of on-campus recruiting and assisted in the coordination of camps.

The 2023 Bulldogs posted a 29-27 mark. The team overcame a 1-9 SEC start to go 10-10 over its final 20 league games to qualify for the SEC Tournament. The team set a school record with a .981 fielding percentage. The Bulldogs tallied 101 home runs, the third most in school history. Georgia's lineup featured All-America first baseman/outfielder Charlie Condon who was voted the consensus National Freshman Hitter of the Year plus was named the SEC Freshman of the Year by league coaches.

The 2022 squad advanced to the NCAA Chapel Hill (N.C.) Regional and posted a 36-23 overall record including a 15-15 mark in the SEC, which was good for second place in the Eastern Division. The Bulldogs were a fixture in the top 25 team rankings during the regular season. Bennett's work with the defense helped the squad post a .978 fielding percentage while the team batted .284 which was the highest since 2010.

The 2021 Bulldogs spent 11 weeks in the nation's top 25 rankings and reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll on the club. Still, Georgia went 8-14 against top 10 ranked teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss. The Bulldogs earned a No. 8 seed for the SEC Tournament and went 1-2 with a win over LSU to end the season at 31-25.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. Along with working at Georgia, his experience includes stops at Georgia State, his alma mater Alabama and Georgia Perimeter College (GPC).

Bennett began his coaching career by spending three years as an assistant at GPC under Brett Campbell and Jeremy Brotherton while helping the Jaguars win a pair of region titles. He coached the first-team all-conference catcher all three years, and four GPC players were drafted during his time there. Then, he was named the volunteer coach

Nick AMMIRATI

Asst. Coach
1st Season at UGA
(Miss. St. '13)

#71

Nick Ammirati joined Wes Johnson's coaching staff at the University of Georgia on July 1, 2024 after a successful three-year stint at the University of Kentucky.

Ammirati (am-uh-RAH-tee) served on Nick Mingione's staff as the Wildcats made their first College World Series in 2024, finished with a school record 46-15 mark, and claimed the program's second-ever SEC title after going 22-8 in league play.

The 2024 Kentucky offense, directed by Ammirati, led the Southeastern Conference (SEC) with 120 stolen bases, and in SEC action, the Wildcats led the league in batting average, on base percentage, runs scored, hits, doubles, RBI and stolen bases. Nick Lopez earned 2nd Team All-America honors and 1st Team All-SEC while Ryan Waldschmidt was a 3rd Team All-American and made second team All-SEC. Mitchell Daly and Emilien Pitre, who was tabbed a 3rd Team All-American, made the All-SEC Defensive Team.

In 2023, in SEC play, UK ranked first in batting average, doubles, triples, stolen bases, sacrifices and second in on base percentage. UK also set the school record for the second straight season and led the nation in overall fielding percentage. In 2023, where UK reached its then second-ever Super Regional with a 40-21 mark, it set the school record for hit by pitch in a season, and for the first time in school history had four players tally 15 or more stolen bases and scored its most runs in an inning (14). The 2023 Wildcats fell to eventual national champion LSU in a Baton Rouge Super Regional. In 2022, UK went 33-26.

Ammirati and current Bulldog assistant head coach Will Coggins were on the same UK staff in 2022 and 2023 and both were at Mississippi State in 2012. In five seasons as a Division-I assistant heading into the 2024 season, Ammirati has had 22 players drafted and three already reach the Major Leagues (through 2022). Ammirati's track record is notable both as a player in high school and college, and as a coach at the NCAA and NJCAA level.

Prior to heading to Kentucky, Ammirati helped guide Southern Miss to an NCAA Tournament appearance as an assistant coach in 2021 when the Golden Eagles posted a 40-21 mark and reached the Oxford (Miss.) Regional final. USM ranked 17th in home runs, 23rd in doubles and 31st in slugging percentage. Also, he helped infielder Reed Trimble to Perfect Game/Rawlings All-America third-team honors as the all-conference and freshman All-America honoree ranked first nationally in runs batted in and was 24th nationally in home runs.

Before going to USM, Ammirati spent four seasons at Hinds Community College (HCC) as an assistant coach, serving as the program's recruiting coordinator and the school's sports information director. In his first three years at Hinds, he was the pitching and catching coach, leading the Eagles to back-to-back regional appearances, including a regional championship and NJCAA Division II World Series appearance in 2017. The 2017 season saw Hinds' pitching staff rank sixth nationally with a 3.43 Earned Run Average (ERA), which also ranked as the lowest team ERA in program history. The 2018 and 2019 staffs also ranked high, finishing seventh and 20th in the nation, respectively.

In 2020 at HCC, he took over coaching third base and helped the team offensively while working primarily with catchers and infielders. The Eagles posted a team batting average of .340 and a .553 slugging percentage. Both marks ranked top-10 nationally. A total of 61 players during his four-year tenure at HCC continued to the next level, including 44 NCAA Division I signees – seven of which signed with SEC schools.

Ammirati came to HCC after two years at Northwestern State where he worked with current Louisiana Tech head coach Lane Burroughs. In his two seasons as assistant coach and camp coordinator in Natchitoches, La., NSU claimed a pair of 30-win seasons and had six players taken in the MLB Draft, including Nick Heath who made his MLB debut in July 2020.

Ammirati's baseball career began at Seton Hall Prep in West Orange, New Jersey, where he was a high school state and national champion as the team's starting catcher. The 2007 Seton Hall Prep team went 33-1 due in part to Ammirati and battery mate Rick Porcello, who pitched for the Boston Red Sox and was the 2016 American League Cy Young Award winner.

After getting drafted out of high school in the 46th round by the Florida Marlins in 2009, Ammirati opted for college and enrolled at Seton Hall University. As a freshman in 2010, he played in 22 games with 18 starts before transferring at the end of the season to Panola College in Texas. After a successful one-year stint in Panola, Ammirati transferred to Mississippi State where he played 64 games with 52 starts across two seasons. On top of being the starting catcher in Starkville for the 2013 CWS runner-up squad, Ammirati was the battery mate for 12 pitchers that reached the majors.

Ammirati earned his bachelor's degree in public relations from Mississippi State in 2013 where he was a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll honoree. He received his master's in health and human performance from Northwestern State in 2016. He is married to the former Caroline Pound.

Zach ADAMS

Associate Athletic Trainer
5th Season at UGA
(Alabama '09)

Zach Adams begins his fifth season as an associate athletic trainer with the UGA baseball program. His primary responsibilities include prevention, immediate care, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries. Adams came to Georgia after spending eight years at the College of Charleston, where he oversaw the sports medicine coverage for the baseball team. Prior to working with the Cougars, Adams worked at the University of North Georgia in Dahlonega, Ga., overseeing the medical care for their baseball team for two seasons.

A native of Cullman, Ala., Adams has been a certified athletic trainer since 2009. He graduated with a M.S. in Sport Management from Florida State University in 2011 and a B.S. in Athletic Training from the University of Alabama in 2009. Adams is married to the former Jensine Jernigan of Powder Springs GA. Zach and Jensine have two children, Kennedy (5) and Emerson Kate (2).

(Arkansas '18)

Derek Groomer enters his second season on the Georgia staff of Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson. In 2024, the Bulldogs posted a 43-17 mark, advanced to an NCAA Super Regional and finished with a top final team ranking for the first time since 2008. Groomer leads the Bulldogs sports performance program.

In 2023, he served as the head of baseball performance – sport science coordinator for LSU. He helped the Tigers capture their seventh national title as they went 54-17 and had a school record 13 players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft including the first and second overall picks.

Prior to going to LSU, Groomer spent two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Alabama Birmingham, working with the Blazers baseball and volleyball programs. He spent part of 2020 assisting the TCU baseball program in strength and conditioning under the guidance of assistant athletic director of human performance Zach Dechant.

A native of Rogers, Ark., Groomer pursued a sports performance career while completing his degree at the University of Arkansas. He gained experience as a volunteer assistant at TCU during the summer of 2018. Also, he worked as an intern with Blaine Kinsley and the Razorbacks baseball program from 2018-2020. He spent a portion of 2019 with the New York Mets minor league organization in Port Saint Lucie, Fla., as they founded a sport science department.

Kevin KNIGHT

Director of Player Development,
Video & Souting
2nd Season at UGA
(George Mason '14)

Kevin Knight, who spent five seasons with TCU, joined the Georgia staff of Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson in July of 2023 as the Director of Baseball Operations.

In 2024, the Bulldogs posted a 43-17 mark, advanced to an NCAA Super Regional and finished with a top final team ranking for the first time since 2008. In the summer of 2024, Knight was named the Director of Player Development, Video and Scouting.

Knight was a part of Kirk Saarloos' staff that finished tied for third at the 2023 College World Series (CWS). TCU posted a final record of 44-24 and made its first CWS appearance since 2017. During the 2022 and 2023 seasons, he served as the Director of Player Personnel for the Horned Frogs.

In his first three years with TCU, Knight served as the Coordinator of Program Development. Overall, Knight was responsible for handling all technology, analytics, and video used in the program. Additionally, he assisted with recruiting and helped managed the team's data Twitter account.

Before going to TCU, Knight spent time working with teams in Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association, handling video, scouting and miscellaneous operations. Knight's professional experiences includes stints with the Texas Rangers, San Diego Padres, Cleveland Indians, Cleveland Browns, Washington Redskins and the Washington Wizards.

A native of Keller, Texas., Knight earned a degree in sport management from George Mason University in 2014. He and his wife Debbie have one son, Marcus.

Cam SHEPHERD

Director of Baseball Operations
1st Season at UGA
(Georgia '20)

Former Georgia Gold Glove-winning shortstop Cam Shepherd begins his first season back with the Bulldogs as the Director of Baseball Operations on Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson's staff.

A native of Duluth, Ga., Shepherd spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at Samford on Tony David's staff. He worked with the infielders, outfielders and assisted with the hitters and recruiting. He arrived at Samford in the fall of 2022 after serving as an assistant coach with the Gainesville Gol'Diggers of the Sunbelt Baseball League, a collegiate summer league based in Georgia and Alabama.

Samford went 37-25 in 2023, winning both the Southern Conference regular season title and conference tournament crown to advance to the NCAA Tournament where they went 1-2 at the Auburn Regional. In 2024, Samford posted a 36-22 mark, falling in the SoCon Tournament title game.

A four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection, Shepherd started and played in 198 games during his Georgia career from 2017-2020. He ended his career with the highest fielding percentage by a Bulldog shortstop at .970 in 834 total chances. Also, he owns the single season school record for fielding by a shortstop with a .987 mark in 2019. That record earned him an ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove. Also, he became the first shortstop in SEC history to go an entire 30-game league schedule without an error. He hit .261 for his career with 45 doubles, five triples, 22 home runs and 119 RBI.

A graduate of Peachtree Ridge High School, Shepherd was a 29th-round selection of the Boston Red Sox in the 2016 MLB Draft. He chose to attend Georgia where he helped the Bulldogs play host to a pair of NCAA Regionals as a national top eight seed. The 2019 Bulldogs went 46-17 including a school record 21 SEC wins.

Shepherd was a 20th-round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in the 2019 Major League Baseball (MLB) Draft but opted to return to UGA for his final year. Shepherd signed a free agent deal with the Atlanta Braves following the 2020 season that was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic as the draft featured just five rounds. He played one season with the Augusta GreenJackets before retiring from professional baseball.

FOLEY FIELD RENOVATION

FOLEY FIELD RENOVATION PROJECT

The $45 million renovation of Foley Field has elevated both the player and fan experience at UGA's baseball facility.

The entire project is on track to be completed by the start of the 2025 season. Along with a new artificial turf playing surface, improvements were made along the left field line and included a state-of-the-art pitching lab, hitting tunnels, nutrition station, weight room, coaches' office and other player amenities.

For the fans, there are multiple new premium spaces as well as enhanced experiences throughout the venue.

Phase one of the project was completed before the 2024 season and that included a new Georgia locker room and team meeting room plus new stadium LED lights.

Home Runs For Hometown Rivals Special Olympics Baseball Game

Each year, the University of Georgia baseball team participates in various community service events. In 11 of the past 13 years, Bulldog student-athletes from various sports have staged a baseball game at Foley Field or the Payne Indoor Facility featuring Special Olympic players. The game was canceled in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The fundraiser benefits Athens-Clarke County Special Olympics. The event is billed as "Home Runs for Hometown Rivals" and features a game between special needs Clarke-County athletes from the Westside of Athens versus Eastside players. Sometimes rain forces the event indoors, but a good time is still had by all.

The unique event features pregame ceremonies, introductions and the student-athletes help the participants swing bats and run the bases. The event has raised more than $2,000 annually through ticket sales, concessions, donations and corporate sponsorships.

Dual-Threat Dawgs

In the modern era of Georgia Baseball, there have been a handful of two-way Bulldogs. In fact, 3B/Closer Aaron Schunk was honored as the 2019 John Olerud Award winner by the College Baseball Foundation as the nation's top two-way player after being a finalist for the award in 2018. Tucker Bradley in 2020 was the last Bulldog to excel as an outfielder and relief pitcher.

One of the greatest dual-threat Bulldogs was All-American LHP/DH Derek Lilliquist. A first round draft pick of Atlanta in 1987 (6th overall), he spent eight years pitching in the Majors and then served as the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Nationals.

Here's a look at a few of the top two-way Bulldogs since Lilliquist who finished his Bulldog career with a .318 batting average, 35 home runs, 135 RBI plus went 31-12 with a 3.30 ERA in 316 innings pitched.

FOLEY FIELD HISTORY

DID YOU KNOW?

Foley Field has played host to numerous post-season events, starting with the 1987 SEC Tournament and continuing with NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals. Georgia has won five NCAA Regionals and three Super Regionals at Foley Field.

At Foley Field, the Bulldogs are 29-13 in the NCAA postseason including 18-3 in elimination games.

The Garden Club Terrace

A special dedication ceremony took place on April 2, 2016 in the right field fan area of Foley Field when it was officially named "The Garden Club Terrace." This honors former Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, former Bulldog golf coach Dick Copas, and former Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell.

This trio of remarkable men served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association, and the Athens community for more than 30 years. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings. A permanent plaque honoring the trio was unveiled that day (at right).

It is located by the right field fence and features Parker, Copas and Powell. Members of the Parker, Copas and Powell families, along with J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity were in attendance at the dedication ceremony. Then, they all cheered on the Bulldogs to a 12-4 win over No. 21 Alabama.

FOLEY FIELD HISTORY

Home of The Bulldogs

Foley Field has served as Georgia's home since 1966, and the stadium was constructed in 1990. The Foley family of Columbus is synonymous with Georgia baseball.

The $45 million renovation of Foley Field that was completed prior to the 2025 season continued to elevate both the player and fan experience at UGA's baseball facility. Improvements were made along the left field line and included a new pitching lab and hitting tunnels, coaches' office and other amenities. For the fans, there will be multiple new premium spaces as well as enhanced fan experiences throughout the venue. For 2024, the Bulldogs welcomed a new locker room and team meeting room plus new stadium LED lights.

The history of Foley Field includes a 2015 project, and the large-scale measures of that revival included the following: Redesigning the stadium's main entrance, additional restrooms and concession areas, an expanded press box, club-level and field-level seating, improvements to the dugouts, Georgia's locker room and team lounge, training room and batting cages. In 2013, improvements to Foley Field included the right field area formerly known as "Kudzu Hill," (now the Garden Club Terrace), the installation of a new high-definition video scoreboard and new trees behind the outfield fence.

Foley Field has served as a memorable postseason advantage for the Bulldogs. Georgia is 29-13 in the NCAA postseason in Athens including 18-3 in elimination games.

Bulldog fans have witnessed Georgia clinch trips to the College World Series in 2001, 2006 and 2008. Also, the Bulldogs won an NCAA Regional at Foley Field in 2004 and 2024.

Frank Foley:
Bulldog letterman and Georgia fan

Judge Frank Foley is considered one of Georgia's all-time greats for his contributions both on and off the field. Foley was a part of the 1908 Southern championship team that recorded a mark of 20-2.

He was a distinguished alumnus who is remembered by many as a kind and caring gentleman. His enthusiasm for the University of Georgia was second to none.

*Georgia did not field a team in 1944-45 due to World War II.

Before Foley Field

The first home for Georgia baseball was Herty Field from 1886 until 1911. Then, it was Sanford Field (below) until 1943. Pond Lippett threw the first no-hitter at home in Georgia history, blanking Pittsburgh 6-0 in 1920. Fred Sale pitched a perfect game at Sanford Field in 1923, a 4-0 win over Virginia. It was the first perfect game in Bulldog history and one of only two to date. After World War II, Georgia played on a field with no name located on "Ag. Hill," where Stegeman Coliseum is today. When construction for the Coliseum began in 1962, Georgia moved to its freshman field, which is next to where the Butts-Mehre building is now. In 1966, Georgia moved to its current location, and two years later, it was named Foley Field. On May 5, 1990, a $3.5 million refurbished field was dedicated. Upgrades have continued including $12 million in 2015 and a $45 million project completed for 2025.

Bulldogs Advance To Super Regional, Finish 43-17 With No. 10 Ranking

Promising Start To The Johnson Era

◆ Selected by J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks to lead the Bulldog baseball program last June, Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson set the school record for most overall wins and most SEC wins by a Georgia baseball coach in his first season.

The Bulldogs posted a 43-17 mark and fell one game shy of advancing to the College World Series after playing host to an NCAA Regional and Super Regional as the No. 7 national seed. In the regular season, Georgia finished 22-1 out of conference, which was the best winning percentage in school history. Georgia ended the year ranked No. 10 in three polls.

Also, Johnson became the first Georgia baseball coach to have his first team host and win an NCAA Regional, and he was only the second Georgia baseball coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament in his first season, joining David Perno who did it in 2002.

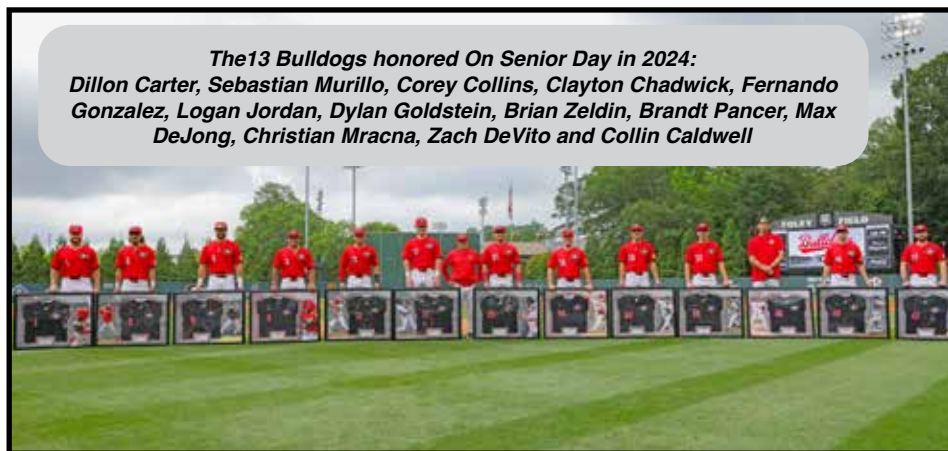

Georgia was picked to finish sixth in the East in a preseason poll of SEC coaches, however the 2024 Bulldogs tied for fifth overall in the league and third in the East behind overall co-champions UT and UK. Three SEC East teams advanced to the College World Series and UT won it.

Georgia finished second nationally with a school record 151 home runs. Six Bulldogs tallied double digit home runs highlighted by the 2024 NCAA champion and school single season record holder Charlie Condon who smashed 37. Also, the 2024 squad hit a school record 12 grand slams including a record four by Kolby Branch. Georgia was third nationally with a .589 slugging percentage and fourth in on-base percentage at .433. The Bulldogs batted .303 with a 5.71 ERA and a .973 fielding percentage.

Top Performers In 2024

◆ Redshirt sophomore 3B/OF Charlie Condon swept the national awards after having one of the greatest seasons in the modern era. He became just the third player ever to lead the country in both batting average (.433) and home runs (37) in the same season plus led the NCAA in slugging percentage (1.009), home runs per game (.62) and finished third in on-base percentage (.556). He concluded his UGA career with a school record 62 home runs in just two seasons. His 2024 honors included:

- Winner of the Goden Spikes Award, the Dick Howser Trophy and the Bobby Bragan National Collegiate Slugger Award

The 13 Bulldogs honored On Senior Day in 2024:
Dillon Carter, Sebastian Murillo, Corey Collins, Clayton Chadwick, Fernando Gonzalez, Logan Jordan, Dylan Goldstein, Brian Zeldin, Brandt Pancer, Max DeJong, Christian Mracna, Zach DeVito and Collin Caldwell

- Consensus National Player of the Year and All-American
- SEC Player of the Year and All-SEC (in a vote of the SEC's head coaches)
- Highest drafted Bulldog in school history. First Round, 3rd overall pick (Colorado Rockies)
- Largest Signing Bonus in MLB Draft history ($9.25 million)

◆ Senior 1B/OF Corey Collins became the first SEC player to lead the NCAA in On-Base Percentage with a school record .574. Also, he set a school mark with 28 HBP. He was named a 2nd Team All-American by Baseball America.

◆ Sophomore RHP Kolten Smith (9-3, 5.56 ERA) and freshman All-American OF/INF Tre Phelps (.353-12-40) earned spots on the USA Baseball Collegiate Summer National Team.

Georgia In The MLB Draft

◆ The 2024 Major League Baseball was 20 rounds, and the Bulldogs had three selections plus a pair sign free agent deals.

Redshirt sophomore 3B/OF Charlie Condon became the highest drafted Bulldog ever as he was selected No. 3 overall in the first round by the Colorado Rockies. Senior 1B/OF Corey Collins was drafted in the sixth round by the New York Mets while catcher Fernando Gonzalez went in the 20th round to San Francisco. Pitchers Chandler Marsh (Mets) and Christian Mracna (Toronto Blue Jays) signed as free agents.

The Bulldogs extended their string to 52 straight seasons with at least one player signing a contract as Condon, Collins and Gonzalez all turned pro. At least one Bulldog has been drafted every year since 1987.

Also of note, three former Bulldogs made their MLB debut. Pitchers Jonathan Cannon (Chicago White Sox) and Zac Kristofak (Los Angeles Angels) and infielder Aaron Schunk (Colorado Rockies). In school history Georgia has had 43 former players reach the Majors.

24 Bulldogs Earn SEC Academic Honors

◆ A total of 13 Bulldogs earned a spot on the SEC Academic Spring Honor Roll while 11 more made the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

The veteran Bulldogs on it were: Corey Collins, Charlie Condon, Zach DeVito, Leighton Finley, Blake Gillespie, Charlie Goldstein, Fernando Gonzalez, Matthew Hoskins, Chandler Marsh, Sebastian Murillo, DJ Radtke, Josh Stinson, and Coleman Willis.

The Bulldogs in their first year to make it were: Kolby Branch, Paul Farley, Ryan Gold, Zach Harris, James Hays, Henry Hunter, Wyatt Lander, Tyler McLoughlin, Cooper Milford, Brandt Pancer and Ethan Sutton.

All-SEC Bulldogs

◆ Along with 2024 SEC Player of the Year and All-SEC 3B Charlie Condon, OF/INF Tre Phelps made the Freshman All-SEC squad while senior catcher Fernando Gonzalez made the SEC All-Defensive Team for the second straight year.

Bulldog Award Recipients

◆ The Jim Whatley Captain Award and Outstanding Senior Award went to 1B/OF Corey Collins (.354 BA, 20 HR, 58 RBI, NCAA-best .574 OB%).

◆ The Scholar-Athlete Award for the player with the highest GPA went to RHP Zach Harris. Harris and graduate Brian Zeldin earned CSC Academic All-District honors too.

◆ The Gordon Beckham MVP Award went to 3B/OF Charlie Condon (NCAA-best .433 BA, 37 HR, and 1.009 SLG%).

◆ The Bert Kizer Award for the top first-year player on and off the field went to Academic All-SEC SS Kolby Branch (.267 BA, 17 HR, 58 RBI).

◆ The Jim Umbricht Award for the most competitive Bulldog went to RHP Leighton Finley (6-1, 4.14 ERA, 1 SV, 76 IP, 76K).

*In 1987, Georgia finished the regular season with the best SEC mark at 18-8 but the SEC title went to league tournament winner Miss. State. MSU went 4-0 in the tournament after going 13-13 during the year. Starting in 1988, the SEC title went to the regular season champion and the tournament winner received the league's automatic NCAA bid.

Note: Georgia has won five SEC Eastern Division titles (1955, 1975, 2001, 2004 and 2008). The SEC Championship format has varied since the inception of the league in 1933. Some years, the SEC has had divisions. In 1977, the league began holding an SEC Tournament following the regular season.

THIS IS SEC BASEBALL

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 91-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

Tennessee and Kentucky shared the 2024 SEC regular-season title after going 20-10 in league action. The Volunteers won the 2024 SEC Tournament title over LSU in Hoover, Ala., and went on to win the CWS over Texas A&M in Omaha, Neb. In 2025, Oklahoma and Texas will join the SEC. The 2024 SEC individual award winners were the following:

SEC Player of the Year: Charlie Condon (Georgia)

SEC Pitcher of the Year: Hagen Smith (Arkansas)

SEC Freshman of the Year: Gavin Grahovac (Texas A&M)

SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year: Drew Beam (Tennessee)

SEC Coach of the Year: Nick Mingione (Kentucky)

A record and nation-leading 11 SEC teams earned a bid to the 2024 NCAA Tournament. Five SEC teams advanced to the Super Regionals with four making it to the College World Series (CWS). Also, the SEC now has won five consecutive national championships by five different programs. Since 2008, the SEC has claimed 10 national titles by seven different teams and 10 have finished runner-up in that period.

Did You Know?

- Georgia won the first baseball national title for the SEC in 1990 while LSU has collected seven crowns since then (1991, '93, '96, 1997, 2000, '09, '23), South Carolina (2010, '11) and Vanderbilt (2014, '19) have two while Florida (2017), Miss. State (2021), Ole Miss (2022) and Tennessee (2024) have one.

- There have been 10 runner-up finishes: Georgia (2008), Florida (2011 & 2023), South Carolina (2012), Miss. State (2013), Vanderbilt (2015 & 2021), LSU (2017), Arkansas (2018) and Texas A&M (2024).

- Total attendance for baseball games on SEC campuses in 2024 was more than three million.

- A total of 88 players formerly from SEC schools were named to MLB Opening Day rosters. No other conference had more than 56 players on Opening Day rosters.

- A total of 118 SEC baseball student-athletes were eligible to wear the SEC graduate patch on their uniforms in 2024, signifying that they earned their college degree.

SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM

In 1999, the SEC expanded its Community Service Team concept to include men's and women's sports at-large, which included baseball. Then in 2004, the SEC recognized one student-athlete per team in every sport for their outstanding community service.

*ACADEMIC ALL-SEC (*From 1971-83)

The Academic All-SEC team was developed to recognize the outstanding athletes who are also outstanding students. To be eligible, a student-athlete must: 1) have a 3.0 grade point average for either the past year or for their career; 2) be a sophomore or higher in academic classification; and 3) have 24 semester hours countable toward a degree. There were 19 Bulldogs honored 24 times during this period.

SEC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL SINCE 1984

In 1984, the SEC developed the Academic Baseball Honor Roll to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 grade point average (either cumulative or during the past year), and had 24 semester or 26 quarter hours countable toward a degree. Prior to the 1996-97 season, the SEC dropped the requirement of earning a letter for that season. Starting in 2002, the recipients were chosen from the previous calendar year. A total of 155 Bulldogs have been honored 286 times.

Forty-three former Bulldogs have reached the Major League level. It began with Claud Derrick for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and continued in 2024 with seven Bulldogs seeing action including a trio making their debut in Jonathan Cannon, Zac Kristofak and Aaron Schunk. Also, there have been six UGA students who never lettered for Georgia but went on to become major league ballplayers: Bill Calhoun (1913), Hal Epps (1938, '40, '43-44), Jack Fisher (1959-69), Ralph Head (1923), Tully Sparks (1897, '99-1910) and Jon Warden (1968).

Looking back in MLB history, Derrick played on Connie Mack's World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911 and, while recovering from a broken ankle in Baltimore in 1912, he was the first roommate of a rookie pitcher named George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Nolen Richardson, a Georgia standout in football and basketball in the 1920s, played six years in the majors and returned to coach the Bulldogs in 1951. Johnny Rucker was featured in LIFE as a promising rookie in 1940.

While many Bulldogs enjoyed success throughout their career, one who stands out is Spurgeon "Spud" Chandler. Chandler was a part of seven World Series teams for the New York Yankees, including winners of six championships. Actually, he first played in Yankee Stadium as a member of the Bulldog football team. Georgia defeated New York University 7-6 on Nov. 7, 1931. Following his graduation in 1932, the Carnesville, Ga., native spent five years in the minors before returning to Yankee Stadium as a major leaguer. In his 11-year career, his finest season came in 1943. He led the league in Wins, Earned Run Average and Complete Games, going 20-4 with a 1.64 ERA and 20 complete games. He went 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in the 1943 World Series, winning game one and pitching a shutout in the clinching game five over St. Louis. Wood was part of the 2020 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers.

Alex Wood has logged 1,258 innings pitched in the Majors and that ranks second most among all Bulldogs.

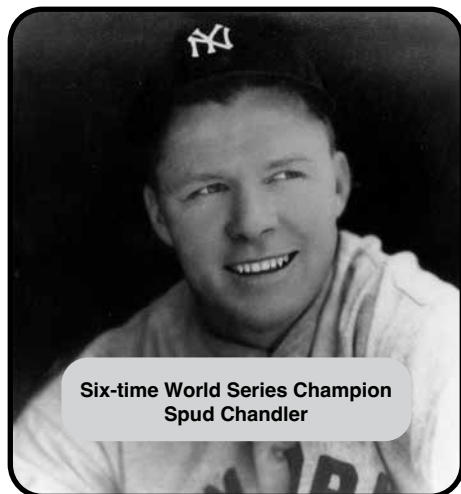

Gordon Beckham played 11 seasons in the Majors.

MLB TRIVIA: Larry Littleton and former St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Michael Potter hold the MLB record for most career at bats by a non-pitcher without a hit. Littleton made the Indians 1981 team out of spring training. He made his debut in game two that season, pinch-hitting in the ninth inning. He grounded out to eventual Hall of Famer Robin Yount. His lone RBI came on a bases-loaded line off Minnesota's Jerry Koonsman that Mickey Hatcher ran down. Most of his at-bats came as a pinch-hitter, and he started just four games over a 45-day span.

GEORGIA MVP RECIPIENTS

GORDON BECKHAM MVP AWARD

Starting in 2014, the annual Most Valuable Player (MVP) Award was named in honor of one of UGA's greatest players, All-American Gordon Beckham. He earned Southeastern Conference Player of the Year as well as SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in his career.

"Gordon possesses all the qualities a program is looking for in their most valuable player, and he continues to represent Georgia in a first class manner as a professional in the Major Leagues," said Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin. "It's a tribute to how he valued the importance of excelling in the classroom and on the field as a Georgia Bulldog."

Beckham arrived at UGA in 2006 as an undrafted infielder and went on to establish himself as one of the best ever to wear the red and black. He was tabbed an All-American and an Academic All-American. He started all 197 games of his three-year career, leading Georgia to a pair of College World Series appearances including the 2008 CWS Finals.

He was a first round draft pick of the Chicago White Sox in 2008, made his MLB debut less than a year later and was named the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year by the MLB Players Association and The Sporting News.

Aaron Schunk claimed the team's Triple Crown in 2019 at .339-15-58 plus served as the closer with 12 saves.

Charlie Condon posted two of the greatest seasons in Bulldog baseball history and won ever major award in 2024.

Gordon Beckham hit .411-28-77 for the 2008 CWS Finalists.

USABaseball, based in Cary, N.C., is the national governing body of amateur baseball in the United States and a member of the United States Olympic Committee (USOC).

The organization selects, trains, and supports the USA Baseball Team and a Junior Team which participates in international competitions, including the Olympic Games and World Championships.

While the first official exhibition baseball game in the Olympics was a 1912 contest in Stockholm, Sweden, reports exist that an unrecognized baseball game was played at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, Mo. A number of single game exhibitions were also played at the 1936, 1952, 1956, and 1964 Olympic Games. The 1992 Games in Barcelona was the debut of baseball as a medal sport.

OLYMPIC TEAM

1936: Henry Wagnon, C (Bostwick, Ga.)

Wagnon was one of 22 delegates to the International Sports Congress whose members demonstrated American Games to other nations in Berlin. Although other countries had planned to send teams for the baseball tournament, none did. So, the USA squad split into two teams and played a night game before a world-record crowd reported to be over 125,000. The World Amateurs defeated the USA Olympics 6-5.

COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM (Summer)

1987: Cris Carpenter, RHP (Gainesville, Ga.)

(1.37 ERA, 5 SV, 59.1 IP, 69 Ks, USA Record 32 games pitched)
Team: 34-9, Silver Medal in Pan Am Games and Intercon. Cup

1989: Dave Fleming, LHP (Mahopac, N.Y.)

(*6-3, 6.32 ERA, 14 games, 8 starts), *TPosted a team-high 6 wins.
Team: 27-17, 6th in Intercontinental Cup (1-5)

1994: Brian Powell, RHP (Bainbridge, Ga.)

(2-2, 4.76 ERA, 9 games, 7 starts)

Opening Night Starter, beat Nicaragua 7-4 in Millington, Tenn.

Team: 24-13, 4-4 in World Championships, 6th Place

2002: Clint Sammons, C (Stone Mountain, Ga.)

(8 games, 5 starts before hit by a pitch in a game that broke his wrist and ended his tour. Perfect fielding percentage with 63 putouts, 11 assists, threw out 33% of runners, two pickoffs, batted .100-0-2 in 20 at bats);
Team: 23-7, 2nd at FISU World Championships

2012: Kyle Farmer, SS (Atlanta, Ga.)

(17 games, .250 with five doubles, eight RBI and a .967 FLDG.%)

Starting shortstop helped team go 12-5 and a bronze medal in the Netherlands. Four of team's five losses came to Cuba that had 12 World Baseball Classic veterans. Farmer had 3 RBI during medal round of the tournament. The team went 2-3 against Cuba in Havana and was the first U.S. squad to travel there in 16 years.

2015: Robert Tyler, RHP (Cordele, Ga.)

(3-0, 1.00 ERA, 3 games, 2 starts)

Led Team USA with 3-0 record. Won both starts including Opening Day and the clinching-victory over Cuba in front of a sellout crowd of 10,352 fans in Charlotte at BB&T Ballpark as team went 9-8 overall.

2019: Cole Wilcox, RHP

(Chickamauga, Ga.)

(1-0, 2.57 ERA, 4 games, 1 start)

Pitched three scoreless innings for a win over Cuba..Tossed 2.2 scoreless innings as part of a combined one-hit shutout versus Japan...Held opponents to a .217 batting average...Team went 8-6 overall with series wins over Chinese Taipei and Cuba.

2024: Alton Davis II, LHP (Hueytown, Ala., 1-0, 0.00 ERA, 2 app., 2.2 IP, 3K), LHP, Tre Phelps, INF/OF (Atlanta, Ga., 4 starts, .385, one triple, one home run, 4 RBI), Kolten Smith, RHP (Ocala, Fla., 0-0, 10.80 ERA, 2 app., 1.2 IP, 1K)

In 2024, USA Baseball fielded a pair of collegiate national squads with one playing the International Friendship Series (IFS) and another the Summer League Tour (SLT). Davis and Smith played in the IFS while Phelps competed on the SLT. Davis was part of a combined no-hitter in a 9-0 win over Chinese Taipei. He pitched the final two innings with three strikeouts. It was the first no-hitter by the Collegiate National Team since 2015 against Cuba. Phelps led the SLT with a .385 batting average. He had a three-run triple to pace the SLT squad to a 7-6 win over the Appy League West Select team.

2023: Charlie Condon, 1B/OF (Marietta, Ga.)

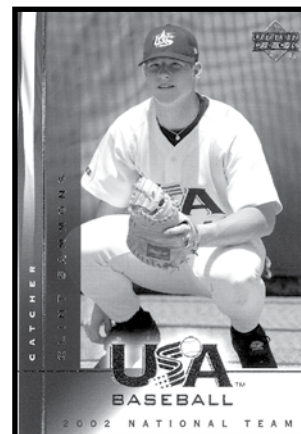

(10 games, 10 starts, .256-3-11, .538 SLG% and a 1.000 FLDG.%)

Started all 10 games and helped team go 7-3 including a five-game sweep in the 20th USA vs.

Chinese Taipei International Friendship Series. In December of 2023, USA Baseball announced its annual organizational award winners. Condon's walk-off single for the CNT on July 4th against Chinese Taipei garnered him the International Performance of the Year Award.

Georgia pitcher Brian Powell was a member of the 1994 USA squad that had six SEC players.

Clint Sammons was part of the 2002 USA Team.

COLLEGE WORLD SERIES TEAMS

The 1990 season will long be remembered as the finest ever produced at Georgia.

Catcher Terry Childers' play in the seventh preserved a 2-1 lead as Stan Payne and Dave Fleming combined to lead the Bulldogs to the national title.

Georgia was invited to Washington D.C., to discuss the strategy they used with President George Bush, a baseball letterman in his collegiate days at Yale.

Steve Webber compiled a 500-403-1 record in 16 seasons (1981-96) as the head coach at Georgia. He led the Bulldogs to two College World Series appearances (1987, '90), including a national championship in 1990. After his Georgia coaching career, Webber has served as a pitching coach in the following organizations: New York Yankees, San Diego Padres, Houston Astros and Atlanta Braves. He was inducted into UGA's Circle of Honor in 2018. Webber passed away in 2022.

State; Outfield (3): Jeffrey Hammonds, Stanford, Tim Clark, LSU, Jason Rychlick, Citadel; Designated Hitter: Lyle Mouton, LSU; +1990 CWS MVP: Mike Rebhan, Georgia

+CWS Note: In 1996, the CWS celebrated its 50th anniversary. All-Decade teams were selected by a panel and Rebhan made it for the 1990s. In the series, he beat Stanford's Mike Mussina twice, going 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA and two complete games.

25th Year Anniversary Of The 1990 National Champions

A total of more than 20 members of the 1990 national championship team returned to Foley Field in 2015 to highlight Lettermen's Day. Head coach Steve Webber threw out the first pitch to catcher Terry Childers while shortstop J.R. Showalter received one of the Distinguished Letterman's Award for Outstanding Athletic Achievement.

THE GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

The Golden Spikes award is given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America. Nine former Bulldogs have been nominated for this prestigious honor including the 2024 winner in third baseman/outfielder Charlie Condon who swept every national award with one of the greatest seasons in college baseball history. Condon received the award before game one of the 2024 College World Series Finals in Omaha, Neb.

As the winner, Condon is automatically enshrined in the United States Baseball Federation's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame. His name is also added to the permanent Golden Spikes Award at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In addition, Condon became the USBF's nominee for the AAU's Sullivan Award, which goes to the nation's top amateur athlete.

Condon is one of six Bulldog first round picks that have been up for the award, joining Emerson Hancock (2020), Gordon Beckham (2008), Joshua Fields (2008), Cris Carpenter (1987) and Derek Lilliquist (1987). Second round pick Rich Poythress (2009) was a nominee as well. Hancock was a semifinalist in 2019. Hancock and pitcher Cole Wilcox made the 2020 preseason watch list, however the award was not presented due to the COVID-19 pandemic canceling much of the season.

Beckham was a finalist for the award while Fields and Poythress were semifinalists. In 1987, not only was it a banner year for the Bulldogs as a team, but also for some individuals. When Carpenter and Lilliquist were tabbed as nominees for the 1987 award. It marked only the second time that two teammates were nominated in the same year. In 1990 former Bulldog pitcher Dave Fleming, who led Georgia to its first-ever national championship, was nominated too.

THE JOHN OLERUD AWARD

The John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award is presented annually by the College Baseball Foundation. Olerud, who was inducted into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007, was a standout pitcher and first baseman at Washington State from 1987 through 1989. The first award was presented in 2010. Georgia's Aaron Schunk was the 2019 recipient after being a finalist in 2018.

He is the only Bulldog to win the award. In his Bulldog career (2017-19), he played in 154 games with 153 starts. A second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2019, he batted .339 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI as a junior plus tallied 12 saves to go with a 1-2 mark and 2.49 ERA in 17 appearances.

Schunk made his major league debut in 2024 with the Rockies.

THE DICK HOWSER TROPHY

In 2024, All-America third baseman/outfielder Charlie Condon became Georgia's first recipient of the Dick Howser Trophy presented by the The Game Headwear and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA). Since 1987, the Howser Trophy goes to the nation's top Division I baseball player. In June, Condon received it live on the MLB Network from Charles Schwab Stadium, site of the annual College World Series (CWS). Condon, along with his parents and Georgia's Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson, were invited to the CWS for the presentation prior to game one.

Condon became the 37th recipient of the trophy. He became just the third player in Division I history to lead the country in both batting average and home runs in the same season. He led the NCAA in four statistical categories: Batting (.443) Home Runs (a BBCOR-era record 37), Home Runs Per Game (.62) and Slugging Percentage (1.009). Also, he posted a national-best OPS of 1.565.

The Howser Trophy is given in the memory of the former Florida State All-America shortstop and major league player and manager who died of brain cancer in 1987. The trophy is regarded as baseball's most prestigious award and the equivalent of the Heisman Trophy. The criteria includes performance on the field, leadership, moral character and courage - all qualities that were exemplified by Dick Howser's life. The annual winner has his name inscribed on the permanent trophy, which is a bronze bust of Howser. Both the recipient and his school receive a special trophy to keep. Condon became the highest drafted Bulldog in school history, going third overall to the Colorado Rockies in 2024.

THE BOBBY BRAGAN COLLEGIATE SLUGGER AWARD

In 2017, the Bobby Bragan Collegiate Slugger Award was established to honor a Texas Division I player based on performance at the plate, academics and personal integrity. It was part of the Bobby Bragan Youth Foundation that began as a scholarship program in 1991 that has provided college scholarships to children in the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex area. In 2021, it became a national award and was open to all 300 Division I baseball programs. Charlie Condon was a finalist in 2023 and won the award in 2024.

OTHER NATIONAL PLAYER AWARDS

In 1985, Ron Wenrich was tabbed the National Freshman of the Year by Baseball America.

In 1987, Derek Lilliquist was named Baseball America's National Pitcher of the Year.

In 2023, Charlie Condon was a consensus Freshman of the Year. Condon was honored by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, D1Baseball and the NCBWA.

In 2024, consensus All-America Charlie Condon was named Player of the Year by Baseball America, D1Baseball and Perfect Game.

THE STOPPER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association of America (NCBWA) since 2005, this award goes to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division 1. In 2008, Georgia All-America closer Joshua Fields posted 18 saves to claim the award as he helped guide the Bulldogs the finals of the College World Series.

A first round draft pick of Seattle, Fields made his MLB debut in 2013 and spent six years in the Majors. He was a part of two World Series teams with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Did You Know? NCAA Record-Tying 8th Inning Outburst

After an 0-5 start to league play in 2023, Georgia secured its first SEC win at Auburn thanks to a record 16-run outburst in the eighth inning. The Bulldogs would post a 24-7 victory in eight innings due to the 10-run mercy rule. In the NCAA record book, the only other team to score 16 runs in an 8th inning was Southern Illinois in 1988 versus Murray State and Saint Mary's (Minn). The NCAA mark for runs in an inning is 21 by three teams, most recently by Valparaiso in the fifth inning versus Chicago State on April 2, 2010.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

2007: Jonathan Wyatt, OF
2008: Rich Poythress, 1B
2019: Cam Shepherd, SS

Beginning in 2007, the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) along with Rawlings Sporting Goods began a program where Rawlings Gold Glove Awards were presented to NCAA Division I players. Nomination and voting criteria are the same as the ABCA Rawlings All-Region and All-American Awards, which are collegiate baseball's oldest selections, dating back to 1949. The players and their schools each receive a Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Georgia outfielder Jonathan Wyatt was one of the nine inaugural recipients in 2007. He led all SEC outfielders with a perfect 1.000 Fielding Percentage in 164 total chances in his final season with the Bulldogs. He was a 13th-round pick of the Chicago Cubs.

Rich Poythress received national recognition for his stellar play at first base for the SEC champion Bulldogs in 2008, earning a Gold Glove Award. He recorded a .995 fielding percentage in 69 starts with a school record 55 assists to go with 535 putouts in helping the team reach the College World Series Finals. Poythress finished his career with a .993 Fielding Percentage (1323 PO, 127 A, 10 E). He was a second round pick of the Seattle Mariners in 2009.

Cam Shepherd earned a Gold Glove in 2019 after setting a school record with a .987 fielding percentage at shortstop. Shepherd became the first shortstop on the All-SEC Defensive Team to go the entire league schedule without an error. He has started every game at shortstop the past three seasons (2017-19), a span of 180 games. A 20th round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in 2019, he opted to return for his senior year and then signed as a free agent with Atlanta in 2020.

THE BERT KIZER AWARD

The Bert Kizer Award is named annually to the Georgia baseball letterman, who in his first year, displayed exemplary achievement in the combined areas of academics, athletics and citizenship.

The award was established during the 1991 season. Bert Kizer was a loyal Georgia Baseball supporter for a number of years. In fact, his two sons, Bubba and Craig, both lettered for the Bulldogs. Bubba was an All-America infielder who recorded a career .346 batting average from 1976-78. Craig lettered in 1981-82 and posted a career pitching record of 6-2.

JIM UMBRICHT AWARD

The Jim Umbricht Award is given annually to the Georgia player considered the "most competitive" by the Bulldog coaching staff. The award is sponsored by former Georgia player Johnny Clifton (1951-53) of Atlanta.

Jim Umbricht was a two-sport great at the University of Georgia in the early 1950s. In 1952, he was named captain of both the Bulldog baseball and basketball teams, playing short-stop and guard, respectively. From Georgia, he went on to a successful professional baseball career. He spent time with the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Houston Colt .45s. He was part of the Pirates World Series Championship team in 1960. In 1963, he was named Major League Baseball's Comeback Player-of-the-Year. He died in 1964 at the age of 33 after a bout with cancer.

The 1975 Team: In Big Jim Whatley's "swan song" as the Bulldog baseball coach, Georgia captured the SEC Eastern Division title. The players included senior captain Phil Baker, All SEC outfielders Larry Littleton and Bubba Wilson and one of the top hitters in the SEC in Ted Dieter. On the mound, these Bulldogs were led by All-SEC hurlers Bill Ivie and Mickey Register along with Mike Keepers and Wayne LaHullier.

Chris Singleton Returns To UGA In 2022

Chris Singleton, who lost his mother in the 2015 mass shooting at a church in Charleston, S.C., returned to UGA and visited with the Bulldogs in 2022. It was a part of his "Love is Stronger than Hate" lecture. He has become an inspirational speaker, sharing his message with collegiate and professional teams. An outfielder for Charleston Southern in college, he faced the Bulldogs at Foley Field in 2016. Singleton later played professionally in the Chicago Cubs organization.

A Legacy Of Strength

Bulldog standouts Chance Veazey and Johnathan Taylor were honored before the win over South Carolina on March 24, 2018, and a unique permanent display on the Foley Field concourse was unveiled celebrating "A Legacy of Strength."

Both of their baseball careers were cut short by life-altering accidents at UGA. Their ability to persevere serves an inspiration to all those who know them and their stories. Both graduated in 2013 and live and work in their Georgia hometowns: Veazey in Tifton and Taylor in Acworth. The display features augmented reality and its own app that fans can download on their mobile device titled "A Legacy of Strength."

Once you download the app, open it and point your camera at the display, then watch at both the story being told and the technology that makes what you're seeing possible.

In December of 2013, Bulldogs Johnathan Taylor, Brett DeLoach and Chance Veazey earned their degrees from UGA.

The Taylor and Veazey families along with several of their teammates, athletic trainer Mike Dillon and their head coach David Perno returned to UGA and Foley Field to honor Chance and JT in 2018.

BULLDOG LORE

While C.E. Morris served as the coach for Georgia's first team in 1886, Hughie Jennings is credited with being the Bulldogs' first official coach. He played for 17 years in the Major Leagues while also managing the Detroit Tigers from 1907-20. He was the second shortstop and among the first 35 men elected to the Hall of Fame. Former Bulldog Claude Derrick began his career with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and played on two World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911. In 1912 with Baltimore, Derrick was the first roommate of rookie George Herman Ruth, better known as "The Babe."

WEBBER JOINS CIRCLE OF HONOR IN 2018

The Circle of Honor is the UGA Athletic Association's all sports recognition program which is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary University of Georgia student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

Steve Webber, who is the winningest baseball coach in Georgia history with 500 victories between 1981 and 1996, was part of the Circle of Honor Class of 2018. He led Georgia to its first two College World Series appearances including winning the 1990 national championship, the first for the Southeastern Conference in the sport.

At the time of his induction, the native Iowan and graduate of Southern Illinois University, was just the fifth among all 79 inductees that are not UGA alumni. Webber passed away in 2022.

ENDOWMENT PROGRAM

University of Georgia student-athletes have a tremendous championship tradition to uphold. They carry the spirit and the pride for all students, alumni and supporters of UGA. The tradition of athletic and academic excellence at UGA is made possible by scholarships that provide these young people the opportunity to become successful, well-educated citizens, distinguished alumni and supporters of UGA.

For more information about the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program, the Coaching Endowment program or other giving opportunities, please contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at (877) GA-DAWGS.
